

Program/ Government Agency - Funding Agency	Activity/Project Name and implementing agency	Objectives and Description	Duration	Total Approval $'000
People Smuggling
AusAID	Document Examination Laboratory Equipment and Training Project - DIMIA	to assist in improving the Philippine Bureau of Immigration's capacity and capability to deter irregular migration and people smuggling through enhanced detection of fraudulent travel documents.	Dec 2003 to June 2006	$287
AusAID	Border Management Systems Project, Federated States of Micronesia - Natural Systems.	To contribute to the ability of the government of FSM to manage and control its borders through the establishment of a functioning computerised border management system in international airports and immigration offices.	2003 to 2005	$877
AusAID	Immigration Institutional Strengthening Project, Samoa - UNIQUEST	To provide institutional strengthening to the Samoa Immigration Division of the Prime Minister's Department to enable it to deliver a more transparent and accountable passport, citizenship, entry and exit administration service the offers increased border security	2001 to 2005	$4,080
total				$5,244.0
People Trafficking
AusAID	Asia Regional Cooperation to Prevent People Trafficking - ACIL Australia Pty Ltd	to strengthen regional cooperation and legal policy frameworks and build national and regional capacity to prevent trafficking of women and children. Initial focus is on Cambodia, Laos, Burma and Thailand	April 2003 to April 2006	$8,500
AusAID	Return and Reintegration of Trafficked Persons in the Mekong Region Phase II - IOM	establishment of systematic and sustainable cross-border working arrangements for return and reintegration of trafficked victims, especially vulnerable women and children in Laos, Burma and Thailand. Emphasis on these countries which did not advance as rapidly as others in Phase I. Contribution to much larger IOM project costed at USD 5 million.	April 2004 to April 2009	$665
AusAID	Australia-China Human Rights Technical Cooperation Program - various	a number of training activities and workshops for officials and community level workers on practical methods to combat trafficking of women and children.	1997 ongoing	$334

AusAID	Human Rights Small Grants Scheme - VietNam Centre for Reproductive and Family Health	to provide support for the rehabilitation of trafficked women returning from Thailand and China to northern border areas of VietNam. Project objectives are to improve the social relations, economic conditions and rights of trafficked women and their integration into society, and to raise awareness of trafficking.	May 2003 ongoing	$44
AusAID	Enhancing Capacity of Immigration Officials to Combat Irregular Migration and People trafficking in Bangladesh - IOM	to provide training and equipment, thus reducing the institutional and technical limitations which hinder Bangladesh's ability to administer effective border control.	2003/04	$164
AusAID	Strengthening Law Enforcement Mechanisms and Institutions in South Asia to Combat People Trafficking - UNIFEM	The Project will help make law enforcement agencies in Nepal, India and Sri Lanka, such as police and the judiciary, more aware of the issues involved in people trafficking, including its impact on the most vulnerable women and children, thus improving the prosecution rate of the perpetrators.	2003/04	$199
AusAID	Capacity Building on Protection of Trafficking Victims - IOM	to develop capacity to protect victims of trafficking according to standards established in legislation and ratified conventions in Thailand, Cambodia and VietNam. Achieved through establishing procedures for handling trafficking victims, through drafting Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) and the development of manuals and training to ensure MOU were understood.	July 2000 to June 2003	$300
AusAID	Support for Regional Trafficking Conferences - various	Examples: Contribution to Bali Process meetings; Assist regional representatives to attend ASEAN Workshop on Trafficking June 2002; Coordinated Mekong Ministerial Initiative against Trafficking (COMMIT) July 2004.	as required	$570
AusAID	Empowering Stakeholders to Combat Trafficking (India) - STOP (Stop Trafficking and Oppression of Children and Women)	Training workshops/awareness raising for law enforcement agencies and sex workers at a district level; regional workshop with Nepal & Bangladesh (source countries for trafficking).	Apr 2004 to March 2005	$73
AusAID	Training of Women's Rights Lawyers and Advocates, Philippines - Unlad-Kabayan Migrant Services Foundation, Inc.	This project will provide trainers' trainings for women's rights lawyers and advocates in the cities of Davao and Cebu. Participants will be lawyers and legal advocates who engage in the practice of human rights, especially women's rights in the Visayas and Mindanao. Aside from lectures, discussions and workshops, the training on the Anti-Trafficking of persons Act will be using the mentoring method, where the participants can learn as peers. They will discuss the issues and problems of their pending cases or cases which are being litigated in their provinces.		$213
total				$11,062

Child Protection/Sex Tourism
AusAID	Prevention of child abuse in ASEAN tourism destinations - Child Wise	assist on a national and regional policy and planning level to prevent child sexual exploitation across South East Asia. It will continue to promote regional cooperation in addressing sexual exploitation of children in tourism.	July 2004 to July 2006	$590
AusAID	Philippines Fifth Country Program for Children - UNICEF	The program's overall objectives are to support the Government of the Philippines to (a) progressively implement the Convention on the Rights of the Child through strengthening the capacity of local government units to manage basic services, and (b) enhance the full participation of civil society to support families to raise, nurture and protect their children. The Child Protection component addresses the problems of the worst forms of child labour; trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation; children in armed conflict, in conflict with the law, without primary caregivers; and children of Muslim and indigenous minorities.	2000 to Dec 2004	$1,791
AusAID	AusAID-NGO Cooperation Program (ANCP) - various	Supports accredited Australian NGOs own development programs on 3:1 basis for relevant activities on annual basis. Further relevant activities may be funded from 2004/05 and beyond.	Ongoing as approved	$594
total				$2,975
Legislation/Legal Issues
AusAID	People smuggling Legislative drafting assistance to Cambodia - DIMIA	working with National Working Group in relation to domestic immigration laws. The project is designed to draft stand-alone legislation to make people smuggling an offence in Cambodian law.	July 2003 on going	$50
total				$50
Returns
AusAID	Return and Reintegration of Trafficked Persons from Australia to source countries in Asia - IOM	enhancing capacity of referral agencies to support and reintegrate suspected victims of trafficking who return to their country of origin in Asia; enable monitoring of the reintegration process; and facilitate investigation and/or prosecution of traffickers. Initially the project is working with Thailand.	May 2004 to May 2007	$500
AusAID	Return and Reintegration of Refugees and IDPs in Afghanistan - IOM	Establishment of systematic and sustainable cross-border working arrangements for return and reintegration of displaced Afghanis	Sept 2000 to June 2005	$6,100
TOTAL				$6,600
			GRAND TOTAL	$25,931